PREVIEWING THE OKLAHOMA SOONERS

OU in the Round of 16

In his first year, head coach John Roddick led 20th-ranked Oklahoma to its first ever appearance in the NCAA Round of 16. The Sooners advanced to the Round of 16 after defeating No. 40 Tulsa in the first round, 4-0, and upsetting 14th-ranked Texas Tech, 4-2, to claim the Norman Regional.

Where Oklahoma Began the Season

Oklahoma began the season ranked No. 44 nationally but quickly jumped in the rankings after starting the season with a 12-1 mark, vaulting OU as high as No. 17.

Pre-season rankings had senior Andrei Daescu, No. 10 nationally and No. 1 in the central region. The Romanian native vaulted in the rankings after his second place finish at the D'Novo/ITA All-American Championships this past fall.

Junior Ionut Beleleu checked in at No. 59 nationally and No. 8 in the central region, while freshman Costin Paval entered the rankings for the first time in his young career at No. 69 nationally and No. 9 in the central region.

OU by the Numbers

On the year, OU has defeated 12 teams ranked in the ITA top-72, while each of the Sooners' losses has come against teams ranked in the ITA top 15. In addition, the Sooners have defeated San Diego State (No. 50) and OSU (No. 48) twice this season.

OU's highest win came over No. 14 Texas Tech in the second round of the NCAA Championships.

Roddick Returns to Athens

John Roddick, a four-time All-American at the University of Georgia, returns to Athens as the head coach of an up-and-coming Big 12 program. Roddick played collegiate tennis at Georgia from 1994-98, where he manned the No. 1 singles position for three years. Roddick returned as an assistant coach at Georgia from 2000-02, where he helped coach the 2001 National Championship team.

MEN'S TENNIS NOTES

JOHN RODDICK HEAD COACH | FIRST SEASON

John Roddick was announced as the head men's tennis coach by University of Oklahoma Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics Programs and Athletics Director Joe Castiglione on June 19, 2009.

Roddick is a former professional tennis player and coach. Most recently he was director of Roddick Total Tennis, a high-performance boarding academy in San Antonio and Austin, Texas, which he operated from 2002-09.

Also during that time, from 2006-08, he coached his brother, Andy, a former No. 1-ranked player in the world, on the ATP Tour. In 2006 and again in 2008, John was the Team Captain for the United States' World Team Cup squad.

Roddick's Division I experience came as an assistant coach at Florida State for the 1999-00 school year and then at his alma mater, Georgia, from 2000-02. Georgia dominated college tennis during that time and won the 2001 NCAA team title. The Bulldogs also reached the 2002 NCAA Team Final.

Born in Omaha, Neb., Roddick was a world-class player. He was a four-time All American at Georgia from 1995-1999 and was named UGA Athlete of the Year in 1998. Also at Georgia, he was a three-time SEC All-Academic selection.

A top U.S. junior, he was a member of the 1993 and 1994 National Teams. He was ranked as high as No. 6 internationally in singles and No. 3 internationally in doubles.

Roddick's academy was a hot bed for top talent. Marquee players at the academy included Nate Schnugg and Jamie Hunt, now at Roddick's alma mater Georgia, Kellen Damico at Texas and Uladzimir Ignatic of Belarus, who was the 2007 French Open Junior champ.

As a coach, Roddick has worked with top touring pros including his brother, Mardy Fish, and Uladzimir Ignatik.
